COSTS: Rock Valley College has a Cooperative Educational Agreement with other Illinois Community Colleges. The following applies:

NOTE REGARDING COOPERATIVE EDUCATIONAL AGREEMENTS from 2017-2018 RVC catalog (page 93): Rock Valley College has career education cooperative educational agreements with several Illinois community colleges so that students may enroll in occupational degree and/or certificates programs not available at RVC. Students take all specialized courses at the cooperating college. Related technical and general education courses required by the cooperative programs may be taken at Rock Valley College or the community college offering the program. The cooperating college will issue all degree or certificates for successful completion of the individual program. The student pays the in-district tuition of the offering institution.

Participants from Boone & Winnebago Counties must check with RVC and determine if the program they want is covered under RVCs Cooperative Educational Agreement. Student applications for cooperative agreements (in-district tuition) are available in the RVC Student Development Office, on second floor of the Student Center. Participants from Stephenson County must check with HCC.
